NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This note describes how medical information about you can be used and how you can get access to this information. Please read carefully.

Your medical record is protected under HIPAA federal law. There are limitations upon to whom and under what circumstances your medical information can be disclosed. We do not share your private medical information with anyone including your spouse, parent, or employer unless you request it or unless required by law.

The law allows us to share your medical information with your insurance company to verify eligibility and to ensure payment is appropriate for the visit. They may also review your records to ensure that we meet quality standards. We share information with other providers who are treating you or who referred you to us for consultation or treatment. We also provide information about your care and diagnosis when we request tests at the hospital or labs, such as x-ray or laboratory testing. These other providers are also required to protect the confidentiality of your health information under HIPAA.

We may consult you by mail or leave a general message by phone, but we will not give your test results or other private information to a family member without your permission.

We are not affiliated with any drug companies or other marketing services and will not release your health information to anyone for the purpose of marketing services to you. We may, however, give you a reminder by phone of an upcoming appointment. We may disclose information to the FDA in the event of an adverse drug reaction, as required by law, to the Dept. of Public Health in the event of certain communicable diseases.

You may review your medical records or obtain a copy of them upon request. There is a charge for copying depending on the number of pages involved. HIPAA also allows you to make additions or corrections to your medical records. If you have questions about our policy of protecting your private medical record, you may discuss them with our office manager.

CANCELLATION POLICY

I understand the office requires 24 hours' notice for appointment cancellations. If 24 hours' notice is not provided, I understand I may be charged a $25 No-Show/Cancellation Fee.

PERMISSION TO TREAT

I hereby give permission to Franklin Foot Care of RI to examine and/or administer treatment as necessary in the diagnosis & treatment of my foot problem(s), including but not limited to in person visits as well as telehealth visits. I certify that I and/or my dependents have insurance coverage or will pay privately & assign directly to Franklin Foot Care of RI all insurance benefits, if any, otherwise payable to me for services rendered. I understand that I am financiallyresponsible for all charges whether paid by my insurance.
